NEW-YORK TRIBUNE.
1863.

The New-York Tribune, first issued in 1841, in its twenty-second year, has obtained both a larger and more widely diffused circulation than any other newspaper ever published in America. Though it has suffered, with other journals, from the lowering and departure of thousands of its patrons to share in the War for the Union, its circulation on this 5th of December, 1863, is as follows:

Daily	50,125
Semi-Weekly	17,250
Weekly	138,000
Aggregate	205,375

The Tribune is eminently a journal of News and of Literature, The Tribune has political convictions which are well characterized by the single word Republican. It is Republican in its hearty adhesion to the great truth that "God has made of one blood all nations of men"—Republican in its assertion of the equal and inalienable rights of all men to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness"—Republican in its steadfast, earnest, defiant hostility to every scheme and effort of the Slave Power from the Annexation of Texas to the great Rebellion, to grasp the empire of the New World and wield the resources of our country for its own aggrandizement—Republican in its unflinching opposition to the despots of the Old World, who fondly hail in the conflict and calamities suddenly thrust upon us by their American counterparts the overthrow and ruin of the World's Republic—Republican in its unfaltering faith and effort that the Rebellion must and shall end in the overthrow of its plotters and the firm establishment of equitable and equal laws throughout the whole extent of our country, wherein Liberty and Union shall indeed be "one and inseparable" henceforth and forever.

The Tribune devotes attention in minor degree, and to some extent in close to Economics, Temperance, Agriculture, Inventions, and whatever else may minister to the spiritual and material progress and well being of mankind. But for the present its energies and columns are mainly devoted to the invigoration and success of the War for the Union. Its special correspondents accompany every considerable army and report every important movement of that great struggle, which we trust is to result in the signal and conclusive triumph of the National arms and in the restoration of Peace and Thrift to our distracted, bleeding country. We believe that in no otherwise can a fuller and more accurate view of the progress and character of the numerous conflicts be obtained than through the regular columns of our columns. And we solicit the co-operation of friends of the National cause which we uphold, as that of Humanity, to aid us in extending our circulation.

BARBARA FRIETCHIE.

BY J. G. WHITTIER.

Up from the meadows rich with corn,
Clear in the cool September morn,

The clustered spires of Frederick stand
Green-walled by the hills of Maryland.

Round about them orchards sweep,
Apple and peach tree fruited deep,

Fair as a garden of the Lord
To the eyes of the famished Rebel horde,

On that pleasant morn of the early fall
When Lee marched over the mountain-wall,

Over the mountains winding down,
Horse and foot, into Frederick town.

Forty flags with their silver stars,
Forty flags with their crimson bars,

Flapped in the morning wind: the sun
Of noon looked down, and saw not one.

Up rose old Barbara Frietchie then,
Bowed with her four-score years and ten:

Bravest of all in Frederick town,
She took up the flag the men hauled down;

In her attic-window the staff she set,
To show that one heart was loyal yet.

Up the street came the Rebel tread,
Stonewall Jackson riding ahead.

Under his slouched hat left and right
He glanced: the old flag met his sight.

"Halt!"—the dust-brown ranks stood fast.
"Fire!"—out blazed the rifle-blast.

It shivered the window, pane and sash;
It rent the banner with seam and gash.

Quick, as it fell from the broken staff,
Dame Barbara snatched the silken scarf.

She leaned far out on the window-sill,
And shook it forth with a royal will.

"Shoot, if you must, this gray old head,
But spare your country's flag," she said.

A shade of sadness, a blush of shame,
Over the face of the leader came;

The nobler nature within him stirred
To life at that woman's deed and word:

"Who touches a hair of yon gray head
Dies like a dog! March on!" he said.

All day long through Frederick street
Sounded the tread of marching feet:

All day long that free flag tossed
Over the heads of the Rebel host.

Ever its torn folds rose and fell
On the loyal winds that loved it well;

And through the hill-gaps sunset light
Shone over it with a warm good night.

Barbara Frietchie's work is o'er,
And the Rebel rides on his raids no more.

Honor to her! and let a tear
Fall, for her sake, on Stonewall's bier.

Over Barbara Frietchie's grave
Flag of Freedom and Union, wave!

Peace and order and beauty draw
Round thy symbol of light and law;

And ever the stars above look down
On thy stars below in Frederick town!

Insurrection at the South

A Slave Revolt in Hancock, Georgia.—The Macon (Ga.) Confederate, of the 14th ult., says:

"The reported insurrection of blacks in Hancock county, seems to have been a more serious affair than at first supposed. From trustworthy information communicated to us, quite a large number of negroes are implicated in the intended revolt. Their organization was complete, and officers chosen from that of major-general down to corporal. The chief of the conspiracy is an artful and intelligent fellow, who was well qualified to be a leader of such a dangerous enterprise.

"He was the major general of the forces, and proceeded to Atlanta on business connected with the plot.—The plan was laid to join Rosecrans when he arrived and captured Atlanta. To this they were put up by designing rascals from Lincolndom, who are now infesting the whole country. A number of the ringleaders of the plot have been arrested and lodged in the Hancock jail, and with them the major general, who was brought in irons from Atlanta.

"On arriving at the jail, and seeing his comrades cribbed, he said to them scornfully, 'You have played —— haven't you?' and then subsided into stubborn silence in reference to his object. Judge Thomas has ordered an extra session of the Supreme Court for the third Monday of this month, to investigate the case, and properly punish these misguided and desperate malcontents, if found guilty, as they are sure to be, from the disclosures already made. Let other communities take warning.

☞ Lately a gentleman called upon the President and solited a pass for Richmond:

"Well," said the President, "I would be very happy to oblige you, if my passes were respected; but the fact is sir, have, within the past two years, given passes to two hundred and fifty thousand to go to Richmond, and not one has got there yet."

The applicant quietly and respectfully withdrew on his tip toes.

☞ Cincinnati, according to the annual statement of its trade and business, has 131 houses engaged in manufacturing clothing for the army, and over eight thousand persons, chiefly females, are employed by them.

A Letter Captured by the 4th Iowa Cavalry.

The following is a copy of a letter captured at Canton, by a member of 4th Iowa cavalry. Guernton is in Canal co., about 60 miles N. E. of Canton. The writer is said to be one of the wealthiest Planters in the country.—Were you to travel through this country you would think the old fellow about right in most of his ideas, especially panic. I have little to say about the war; all we ask is, that you citizens take care of traitor citizens, and we soldiers will take care of traitor soldiers.

E. B. Woodruff.

Guernton, Miss., July 14th, '63.

Dear Bob:—Yours by Tom is just to hand, and we are glad to hear from you, and to know that you are in the land of the living, and I do hope you will live to kill many a Yankee yet. Your notion about putting the negroes boys in the army is a very good one, and I would send them to you if I had them here. Hattie has just gone to the Bottom to tell the Overseer to have everything ready to move immediately. I have not yet determined which way to move, whether east or west. I would not at all, but I am not willing that my negro fellows should be forced to take up arms against my country, and my own sons. Should you conclude to take the boys with you in the army, send for them immediately or let me know where to send them for you have no time to delay, and I will send them to you at any point you may direct; but if I should not hear from you before I leave with my own, I shall take them with me; but I think you had better put them in the army, so attend to it right away; I am afraid our State has gone up, if not the Southern Confederacy, and all our trouble has been caused by the incompetency or treachery of Jeff. Davis, Lovell and Pemberton—Northern men of Southern principles. The fall of Vicksburg is the heartiest lick we have ever yet had, and it will be sometime before we get over it if we ever do. Just to think of seventeen thousand five hundred men surrendering, and they Southern men at that. I don't know how to believe it; it does not seem that it can be so. Bob whatever you conclude to do with your negroes do quickly, as I before remarked there is no time to be lost. When we heard from Price last, he was united and pushing to the [illegible] which he hated, I know. I wish the Government would force every man in the South, in the Southern Confederacy into the army that is able to bear arms, both white and black, hoist the Black Flag and fight to the death. I think such a course would save the country from Yankee rule—All hands join me in love to you; write whenever you can. Show this to Sam and Jeff if you see them. I wish I was in the Empire of Brazil with all my negroes, clear away from Jeff. Davis, and Lincoln, or if I was even in the interior of Texas or Georgia, I would like it much better than where I am. I never was at a point where I could not come to some conclusion before. I now don't know how to act; but do something and that I must. I am trying to do the best, I may do the worst; if Heaven does not come to our rescue we are a used up people I am afraid; but I intend to face the music somehow, and not cry over it at that, for that does no good, and I had just as well laugh as cry. I cant keep from laughing sometimes to save my life to see the confusion and panic there is in the country. Alphonso, Ham, and several other boys are here from the army, but I have not seen any of them. I never expected to see such times in this State, and I hope never to see it again. There has been seven or eight hundred wagons passed through Vaiden in the last few days on their way East.

I have just learned that Gen. Lee has Arlington Heights, and is shelling Washington City, and that Old Joe Johnson has whipped Grant, and driven him back to Black river, and that that fool, J. N. Brown, after whipping the Yankees at Yazoo City, burned up all the transports and evacuated Yazoo City, and did not even spike his guns. Ma your Aunt Sally and hands join me in love to you and the boys. Write whenever you can.

Yours Truly,
John D. McLemore.

Poll-Books Opened with Prayer.—On the night before election the Rev. Dr. Bronson, of Sandusky, urged a prompt attendance at the polls on the next morning, to see that everything was done right, and said he should be there at six o'clock. The Rev. Dr. was on hand, as he promised, at the polls in the Second ward, and it being supposed that the Dr. might do some good in a spiritual way, he was asked to make a prayer, which he did with great unction, and with great effect upon the auditory. So there was one set of poll-books opened with prayer.

☞ Had not Pennsylvania soldiers on different battle fields been deprived of the right to vote at the late election by a grossly unjust decision, they would have given their suffrages almost unanimously to Andrew G. Curtin, increasing his majority from fifteen to at least sixty thousand. This is a fact which should be noticed and remembered.

The Old Bull Run Battle-field.

A correspondent of the Philadelphia Inquirer gives the following description of a visit to the Bull Run Battle-field.

On Monday night I rested with a part of the army that pitched their tents on the section of the old Bull Run battle-field adjacent to the Warrenton Pike. A poet might find here in the suggestive relics of the deadly strife the theme of an epic; or a painter might illustrate on canvass the horrors of war from the memontoes here left of its ruthless work.

Bullets are picked up and exhibited by the handful, and soldiers who participated in the fray, are comparing at the same time their gathered memontoes and their personal recollections of the bloody field. In the long, luxuriant grass, one strikes his foot against skulls and bones, mingled with the deadly missiles that brought them to the earth. Hollow skulls lie contiguous to hemispheres of exploded shells. The shallow graves rise here and there above the grass, sometimes in rows, sometimes alone, or scattered at irregular intervals.

Through the thin layer of soil that hides the nameless hero who gave his life for his country, one sees the protruding ribs, whence the rain has washed their covering, a foot or an arm reached out beyond its earthen bed and once I saw one of these long sleepers covered snugly up to the chin, but with the entire face exposed and turned up to the passer-by; one could imagine him a soldier lying on the field wrapped up in his blanket, but that blanket was of clay and the face was fleshless and eyeless.

In one case a foot protruded, with the flesh still partially preserved; in another case an entire skeleton lay exposed upon the surface, without any covering whatever. The tatters of what had been his uniform showed that he had been a cavalryman. The flesh was, of course, decomposed; but the tanned and shriveled skin, still incased the bony frame work of the body, and even the finger-nails were in their places. The ligaments that fasten the joints must have been severed, for he was lifted by the which was still around the waist, and not a bone fell out of its place.

When found he lay in the attitude of calm repose, like one who had fallen asleep from weariness. This was in the camp of the Ninth Massachusetts regiments. He was buried, as were many more that night who had waited a long fourteen months for their funeral rites. In fact the different pioneer corps were engaged for some time in paying this last tribute to the gallant dead, whose fragmentary remains were scattered roun l our camp.

The Pennsylvania Reserves bivouacked for the night on the ground where they themselves were engaged in deadly strife in the battle of fourteen months ago, and the skulls and bones of some of their former companions in arms lay around within the light of their camp-fires. It may even have happened that men pitched their tents over the grave of a lost comrade, and again unwittingly rested under the same shelter with one who had often before shared their couch on the tented field.

A soldier of the 1st regiment struck his foot against a cartridge box near his tent, and pricking it up read on it the name of an old associate, who had been among the missing, and whose death was only known from his prolonged absence. His resting-place had at length been found, for near the box was a small mound of earth that doubtless contained his mouldering bones.

An officer of my acquaintance recognized the spot where his tent was located as one near which he was severely wounded, and where he lay through a long, weary night by the side of a dead captain. The painful reminiscence which the place called up rendered it anything but an agreeable camping-ground to him.

Mourning at Nashville.—A late letter from Nashvild says: "A large part of the wealthy population of this city were in Bragg's army, under Breckinridge and Cheatham, at the late battle, and great numbers have been killed. Out of sixteen hundred under Breckinridge, thirteen hundred were killed and wounded. It is said that three fourths of the ladies of the Episcopal church are in mourning for their dead."

Unjust Arrest and Imprisonment.

[Communicated.]

At a meeting of Pennsylvanians held in Washington on the 25th ult., to consider the circumstances attending the recent arrest, and imprisonment of J. A. Williamson, of the Penn-sylvania Relief Association, the following report was made, adopted, and ordered to be published in the newspapers of Washington and Pennsylvania:

Headquarters Pa. State Agency,
No. 487 Eleventh street,
Washington, October 28, 1863.

To the Chairman and Members of the Executive Committee of the Pennsylvania Soldiers Relief Association.

Gentlemen: The committee appointed by your body to report the facts attendant upon the recent arrest and imprisonment of Joseph A. Williamson, Esq., under order of Major Turner and by Col. Baker, Provost Marshal of the War Department, and his subsequent release, represent as follows:

That Mr. Williamson is and has been one of the most active members of the Pennsylvania Relief Association, and is a member of its Executive Committee. During the past year he has been constant and faithful in the discharge of all his duties, and has rendered most valuable and important service, as well in hospital as in the field. About three weeks ago it became necessary to remove the stores of the Association from the Patent Office building to the rooms occupied by it; and the question arose as to the expediency of selling some surplus rags, lint, and other unavailable material which could not be conveniently kept in store.

After consideration it was determined to sell a certain proportion, as is the custom of this and other like associations, of these goods, of which three hundred bushels are yet left, thereby enabling the Executive Committee to keep on hand a small fund sacred to the purpose of purchasing absolute necessaries for the daily wants of our sick and wounded soldiers. The order of sale was given by the chairman of the above named committee, and under the general direction of Mr. Williamson, the assistant storekeeper, Mr. Hutchinson, in the presence of Dr. Houston, another member of the Executive Committee, opened, weighed, and packed the material, and transferred it to Francis A. Bogert, a regular dealer of Philadelphia, who had made a previous purchase of the same character of goods from the Association.

The lot, as reported by Mr. Hutchinson, weighed 1,063 lbs., for which Mr. Bogert paid the sum of $85,45, which was promptly deposited by Mr. Williamson in the banking house of Jay Cooke & Co. to the credit of the Association. The proof of deposit was at once submitted to the chairman of Executive Committee, thus concluding his responsibility. This took place October 10th and 12th.

On the morning of the 23d instant, Mr. Williamson was arrested at his desk in the Interior Department, by a detective of Col. Baker, and was taken to the office of the latter, without the remotest idea that any charge had been preferred against him.—After waiting about an hour, Major Levi C. Turner, Judge Advocate, and Col. Baker, Provost Marshal of the War Department, entered the room, and a short conversation ensued, which it may not now be important to detail. The sum of it was that Mr. Williamson was informed that he was charged with selling Government stores and pocketing the money, and that he was to be sent to the Old Capitol prison. Mr. Williamson vehemently protested his innocence, and appealed for an opportunity to explain the transaction, and send for parties of the highest respectability who could establish his innocence; Col. Baker replied that he should "see no one." Mr. Williamson asked to be allowed to remain in Col. Baker's office until he could send for Secretary Usher, of the Interior Department, or Mr. Brady, the chairman of the Executive Committee of the Association. Col. Baker denied his prisoner this privilege, and, telling him that he could write letters when he reached the Old Capitol, and handing his commitment to an officer, left the room.

One of the officials, a witness of of this injustice and cruelty to a man as innocent as any of his accusers and more innocent than some whose presence he was obliged to tolerate, furnished Mr. Williamson with a desk before his removal to the Old Capitol and offered to deliver letters to Mr. Usher or Mr. Brady.

About one o'clock on that day, the 23d instant, he reached the Old Capitol, was taken to his cell, and, its key turned him, his incarceration was accomplished.

Immediately upon hearing of the circumstance, Judge Usher, Secretary of the Interior, in whose Department Mr. Williamson is a trusted clerk, and subsequently Messrs. Brady and Eaton of the Executive Committee, with other Pennsylvanians, called upon Major Turner at his house, and were in a few minutes enabled to make the explanation the opportunity for which had already been denied the helpless prisoner. The result of the interview was that Mr. Williamson was released about 6 45, P. M., the same day of his arrest, Major Turner being fully satisfied of his entire innocence.

Your committee have but a few remarks to make in concluding this statement.

No one can doubt the purity of Mr. Williamson's conduct and motives.—He acted under competent authority, paid promptly to the Treasurer of the Association the entire proceeds of the sale, and is wholly acquitted of blame.

This Association has no more faithful member, and we gladly bear public testimony to the zeal and fidelity with which he has discharged his duty.

Respectfully submitted,
C. Robb,
J. J. Lewis,
Ew'd. M'Pherson,
J. H. Puleston,
D. L. Eaton,
J. E. Brady,

The Interest of American Laborers.

If American laborers need any insight into the designs of the Southern leaders of this rebellion as regards labor and American laborers, there is no lack of light, no doubtfulness of meaning in their own declarations.

Said DeBow, in the New Orleans Review: "The right to govern resides in a very small minority: the duty to obey is inherent in the great mass of mankind."

Spratt, of South Carolina, in an address to the Confederate Congress at Montgomery, in 1861, said: "The contest now pending is not between the North and South as geographical sections," "nor between people of the North and the people of the South, for our relations have been pleasant."—"But the real contest lies between the two forms of society." "Society is essentially different from government." "In the one, the reins of government come from the heels; in the other, from the head of the society." "The principal that all men are equal would have been destructive of slavery to the South."

But the declaration of the Charleston Mercury—so well known—it outright and unmistakable: "Slavery is the natural and normal condition of the laboring man, whether white or black."

Such, then, is the issue distinctly presented before American laborers, in this war of the rebellion. On the one side, slave labor—on the other, free labor; on the one side labor degraded,—on the other, honored; on the one side the acknowledgement of universal equality under the Constitution,—on the other, express and revocable denial of the constitutional declaration of equality itself.

☞ One of the most moving incidents of filial affection we have noticed lately is that of the man who writes to his brother from Illinois, who says: "I have got one of the handsomest farms in the State, and have it nearly paid for. Crops are good and prices never were better. We have had a most glorious revival of religion in our church, and both of our children (the Lord be praised) are converted. Father got to be rather an incumbrance, and last week I sent him to the poor house."

How very affectionate! That father must love that boy very much.

☞ Large numbers of refugees, mostly British subjects, are daily coming into our lines from rebeldom. In many cases they are accompanied by deserters. This is the case with all our armies, and shows which way the cat is jumping. The new position of England and the dismissal of the consuls by Jeff Davis, tells the story.

☞ Mr. Mason, writing to Jeff. Davis in 1856 in reference to disunion, said: "I am a candidate for the first letter." Well, if he doesn't win the first, he must content himself with the honor of having tried to be the first to deserve it.—Louisville Journal.

☞ Riches are a burden. There is a burden of care in getting them, fear in keeping them, temptation in using them, guilt in abusing them, sorrow in losing them, and a burden of account at last to be given concerning them.

☞ The name of Brough, the successful candidate for Governor of Ohio is pronounced bruff. The copperheads will see therefore that it rhymes with tough, rough and enough.

BEAVER ARGUS.

Wednesday, Nov. 11, 1863.

D. L. IMBRIE, Editor & Proprietor.

For President in 1864,

ABRAHAM LINCOLN,

OF ILLINOIS.

Union Men, Preserve Your Organizations.

We have endeavored in our last, to show the great results of the last election, and that the loyal men of Pennsylvania sustained at the ballot-box the great principles for which we contend. We will now proceed to show as briefly as possible the necessity for a continuance of the organization of the friends of the Government, which produced this grand and glorious result.

That the people did not want any change in those representing them in the National Government, is perfectly certain, from the hearty support which all truly loyal men gave to the measure and policy of Gov. Curtin, who, in this State, represented the friends of the Constitution and the Union, to overthrow, by force of arms, the rebellion, and compel a submission to the laws. We believe that not only in this State, but in every State in the Union, the people are ready to respond to the decision made by Pennsylvania, Ohio and New York; that is, faithfully to stand by the Government. We believe it will be as necessary and essential to the National existence, to re-elect Abraham Lincoln President of the United States, in order to main in full force and authority the powers of the National Government, as it was to re-elect Andrew G. Curtin, Governor of Pennsylvania, in order to maintain the Commonwealth in her true attitude of allegiance to the National Authority, and until that authority has been fully vindicated, those who are now engaged in its enforcement, should not be changed to make room for unknown and untried men in this great crisis. The country certainly needs no change only from war to a state of peace, and that can be most certainly secured by retaining in power the men who have adopted such measures as will eventually crush rebellion and thus put and end to war. A change of rulers, whilst the war continues, would invoke the danger of disaster to the Government. Thus the people fully understand and are prepared to act accordingly.

Then as the late election resulted so gloriously for the cause of the Republic, in this State, how much more important is it that we should be prepared to stand by and support the cause of civil and religious liberty, in the approaching great National contest. The organization of the friends of the Union was almost perfect, as was proved by the result of their efforts. It, therefore, becomes the duty of every loyal man, every friend of the cause of his country and of human liberty, to keep in active operation during the coming winter their Union Leagues and such other county and township organizations as will be needed during the great contest of 1864. Let them disseminate useful information among the people—arouse them to vigorous action, for the most momentous question which ever came before any people is soon to be decided.

Already we find the enemies of the Government preparing all their party machinery, for the purpose of overthrowing our free institutions, and to enable them to give such aid and comfort to their Southern allies as will make the rebellion a success; and how much more does it become every loyal man in the North to be prepared to meet them and defeat them again most triumphantly, as we have already done.

The Future Course of the Democratic Copperheads.

The men who now claim to be the leaders of the Democratic party North and South, have been engaged for some years past in devising plans, by the success of which they hoped that the American Union, and civil liberty, might be forever destroyed. They have endeavored to disgrace and degrade free labor, and to make the institution of slavery superior to the highest honor and welfare of the nation. But a short time ago the Southern conspirators, and their mean and contemptible allies of the North, were busy in working mischief in Europe against our own Government, and were the meanest and most servile worshipers at the footstool of every throne of the powerful monarchies of the old country, begging for recognition of and alliances with the Southern Confederacy, so that they might have strength to destroy the Government which they had not strength enough themselves to overthrow.—And now since all their efforts and plots have failed, and the rebellion is about to be crushed by the power of a loyal and indignant people, they will turn their attention to some other plans of doing mischief.

Every Northern State in which elections have been held—in Maine, Ohio, Pennsylvania, New York, &c., the people have spoken at the ballot box, in unmistakable tones that this great and good Government shall be maintained at all hazards, at any cost, or price. The conspirators in the South, and their friends, the copperheads in the North, have been appalled by the tremendous and most unexpected determination of the people to support the Government, and to rebuke and trample down their treasonable plots, and restore our country to its wonted power and prosperity. Then whither will they turn, to do mischief, and dishonor the nation which they have disgraced both at home and abroad?

Heretofore, they have boldly proclaimed, and gloried, in their sympathy with rebellion, and their opposition to the Union. They have with their champions, Vallandigham, Woodward and Seymour, opposed the war for the life of the nation, and opposed the National Administration, in every effort it has made for the restoration of an honorable peace. Now we suppose that to enable them to recure the power and influence which they have lost by their disloyalty they will change their course, and try to prove to the people, that they are the true friends of the country—in favor of prosecuting the war until the rebels are compelled to submit to the laws, that they may the more easily deceive the masses, and betray their country. Already we see evidence of their change of policy. Believe them not. The copperhead leaders are, and always will be, the same. Their nature and designs can not change. Whatever course they may adopt, we may always feel confident that the same black, malignant of soul which has characterized their conduct and sentiments, heretofore, will remain the same, until they are utterly exterminated.

Then what is the duty of true and loyal men? It is to watch the copperhead leaders closely, suspect something wrong when you see them smile and prate of the Constitution and the Union. Let us everywhere keep up our Union organizations, watch with a jealous and vigilant eye, every movement of the enemy, and thwart them at every step they make for the destruction of our national existence.

"Eternal vigilance is the price of Liberty."

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9.—Reports received to day from the front, represent that heavy firing was heard yesterday and this morning, as though occurring in the lower part of Culpepper, out from Kelly's ford, at the junction of the Rapidan with the Rappahannock.

The Star of this city says: We hear that Gen Grant has telegraphed that two of the most advanced important positions of Burnside have been assaulted and captured by the rebels, who made prisoners of half of two regiments that were holding them at the time.

The next State Treasurer

During the next meeting of the Legislature of the State, a Treasurer will be elected, and as the Union men have a majority on joint ballot they will elect a good and undoubtedly loyal man to fill that important place.

We hope most sincerely that the HON. HENRY D. MOORE, of Philadelphia, may be chosen. We have long known him, and he is well known to the people of Pennsylvania as one of our most talented, honorable and upright men. As a courteous, kind-hearted and worthy gentleman, he has no superior, and but few equals. He has heretofore occupied that important and responsible position, and was found to be most admirably suited to fill it. His competency and integrity are undoubted, and we hope that for the honor and interests of the State, may be again elected. We feel confident that the Legislature can find no one whose election would give more universal satisfaction to the loyal men of Pennsylvania.

We hope, also, that when again placed at the head of the Treasury, Mr. Moore will appoint our esteemed and excellent fellow-citizen, THOMAS NICHOLSON, Esq., to be his Chief Clerk or Cashier. He has had long experience and has always been found faithful, fully competent, and to possess the most sterling integrity. Beaver county will expect that one of her best and most worthy citizens will be called to fill that place for which he is pre-eminently suited.

A Correction.

In the Western Star, issued Oct. 2d, it was stated, upon what we then thought reliable information, that while at Rochester on the preceding Friday, Gov. Curtin had been drunk. As an act of justice to Gov Curtin, against whom we had no intention of giving circulation to a false report, and for our own vindication from all the ill-feeling which has grown out of the affair, we desire to say that subsequent investigation has induced us to believe that the original statement was incorrect and that we were misinformed as to the facts.

We have no desire at any time, to conceal or suppress the truth, even though its disclosure may benefit a political or personal foe, and had we known before its publication that the story of Gov. Curtin's drunkenness was unfounded, it would certainly never han appeared; or had we known its falsity before the election as we know it now, this correction would have been published then. Believing the statement made to us, with a request for its publication correct, we thought it right that it should be made known. The people have a right to know the truth concerning the personal habits of the candidate for office who solicits their support, and especially when these habits are of such a nature as to interfere with the proper discharge of his official duties, they are legitimate subjects of criticism. From this consideration, we felt ourself justified in publishing the statement referred to. Having been bold enough to give circulation to the original charge we are now fearless of whatever consequences may follow its refutation. We hope always to have courage to tell the truth.—Star, Nov. 6.

We learn that in consequence of the above recantation, the prosecution against Mr. Long for libel has been withdrawn. We publish the article, leaving our readers to draw their own conclusions as to the motives that prompted its publication, as well as the article of the 2nd of October.

Death of Capt Elliot S Quay

To mingle with our hours of pride and triumph, come dispensations casting shadows and inflicting pain. At the first call for three months troops, among the patriotic hearts that responded in Ravenna, were two young men upon whom the promise of long life, usefulness and honorable position, seemed securely set. Both now sleep the last long silent sleep of earth, together with many brave comrades, who, upon a bright April day, in 1861, departed from home and kindred, as soldiers, in the army of the Union.

One fell early, stricken by a swift and fatal malady; the other, after longer service, and a protracted prostration has followed the dear friend and companion, who went before.—Nearly side by side, in the already well filled cemetry, have we, with grief swollen hearts, deposited the earthly tenements of Lieut. Robinson, and Lieut. Quay. Almost inseparable in life, death did not long part them.

Capt. Elliot Swift Quay, died Oct. 20, aged 23 years. He was the youngest son of Rev. A. B. Quay, and was born in Allegheny, Pennsylvania. At the breaking out of the rebellion he was residing with his brother-in-law, J. C. Prentiss, in Ravenna. The first call of the President found him a ready and an eager volunteer. His name was one of the first subscribed for a Company of soldiers, the famous Company G., of the glorious Seventh Ohio. Upon the organization of this company he was chosen Second Lieut. In this position he remained until after the death of Lieut. W. H. Robinson, upon the 8th of October, 1861, when he was commissioned as 1st Lieut. of Co. G. In the succeeding January, he was detailed from his Company to the Staff of Gen. Tyler, and upon the 21st of May, 1862, was appointed A. A. General, with the rank of Captain, and assigned to the Staff of Brig. Gen. E. B. Tyler. This position he retained until the 10th of Oct. 1862, when he resigned and came home. He was then out of health, but hoped to be restored. Upon the 17th of February, 1863, he was attacked with lung fever, and from this sick bed he never arose, but continued daily wasting away until vitality was exhausted; his sickness having rapidly culminated in consumption.

The military career of Capt. Quay developed in him ability and genius. He was a universal favorite with his men, beloved for his kindness, and honored for his bravery. He shrank from no duty and avoided no hardships. Was quick to plan and vigorous to execute, and for his years and military experience, took high rank among the officers of the army with which he was connected. His bravery was conspicious at Cross Lanes, at Cotton Hill, at Blue Gap, at Winchester at Port Republic, at Antietam and at Sharpsburg.

At Winchester he was wounded in the head, and narrowly escaped death.

Before leaving the army he was prostrated with ill health, and came home to recruit, but the exigencies of the service called him back before a favorable reaction commenced. At last and reluctantly, he knew that, if he would live, he must vacate his arduous post, but the decision was made too late; the shaod of the destroyer was upon him and he was to follow other brave ones who have fallen for their country. It is probable that the incipient foundation of his disease was laid in the Western Virginia campaign, where the 7th Ohio suffered privations and hardships which have been unequalled by any of the war.

Capt Quay formerly lived here, and at one time was employed in this office, and is well known to many citizens of Beaver county. He was a brother to Col. M. S. Quay.

FOR THE ARGUS.

EDITOR ARGUS:—I see that the Governor of this State is out in a patriotic call for volunteers to fill up our portion of the President's requisition of the 300,000 to be raised. Now, Mr. Editor, I believe this to be the true method to fill up the ranks of our army, and it should be done by volunteering and at this stage of the war. If we all come up to the work in this way its moral effect upon our enemies will be very salutary. We thus can make short work of the war, and in six months more perhaps we can once more look upon our beloved country in peace, her honor untarnished and her flag the most honored among the nations of the earth.—Now as the political contests are over and generally people have some leisure at this time of year, I would suggest that a County Convention be called at an early day, with the object to instruct our County Commissioners to offer a County Bounty of say $100, or more, in addition to that offered by our Government, which I believe is $402. Then if the county will give $100, which will make $502 bounty to our brave and worthy volunteers who may go out in defence of our Government at this time, her hour of need; if any one objects to our county offering a bounty for volunteers, then I say let him be the first man to go without any bounty, and then by so doing he will verify his sincerity. Mr. Editor, I am not subject to Military duty, and never was; but I am willing to bear my portion in this way, and would be glad to see our noble and brave soldiers, who go to sustain our liberties, amply rewarded.

MISS JENNIE MERCER,

A Falsehood Nailed.

During the late political campaign, the Beaver Star, a Democratic journal of the ultra stripe, made a statement, which was extensively copied by the Democratic papers throughout the State, that Governor Curtin, on the occasion of his visit to that place, got beastly drunk, and had to be assisted to the cars by several of his friends. The statement was a lie out of the whole cloth, and so annoyed some of the Governor's friends that suit was instituted against the editor of the Star, and Monday next fixed for a hearing of the case; but the fellow, fearful of the consequences of his calumny, and desirous, if possible, of avoiding a trial, publishes in the last issue of his paper a complete retraction of the slander, in which he states that he was misinformed as to the facts, and that the story of the Governor's drunkenness was unfounded. A man, who, for political purposes, could resort to slander and detraction like that which the editor of the Star indulged, is unworthy the notice of honorable men, and we presume, now that he has been compelled to swallow his falsehood, the Governor's friends will pursue him no further.—Pittsburg Chronicle, Nov. 7th.

Sumter Occupied by our Troops.

The steamer Salvor arrived at this port to day from Morris Island, and brings the most glorious intelligence. She layed off Morris Island on Monday, the 2d inst., and left that night for Hilton Head. On Saturday and Sunday a terrific bombardment was kept up on Fort Sumter by three of our monitors and Forts Gregg and Wagner. On Monday morning while the Salvor lay off Hilton Head, Capt. O'Neal, of the Invalid corps, reported that news had been received by our military authorities there, that Fort Sumter is in our possession and is occupied by the 144th Pennsylvania volunteers, it having been carried by assault. The report was generally credited. It is also stated that the U. S. steamer Fulton had been ordered to lay off Hilton Head for twenty-four hours to convey the intelligence to New York. The news was convey to Hilton Head by the U. S. steamer Golden Gate on Monday morning.

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—A Tribune Washington special says that the next fortnight promises to be the most eventful since the commencement of the war. The success of General Meade, and the recent operations in General Burnside's department, are the premonitory symptoms of the gigantic conflict, of which the lines of battle will stretch from Chattanooga to Washington and Richmond.

Battle on the Rappahannock—Rebels Completely Routed.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—The following was received from the army of the Potomac to-day.—Headquarters Army of the Potomac, November 7th, 9:30 P. M.—Major General Sedgwick advanced to the railroad and drove the enemy to the river, assaulted and captured two regiments, with artillery, on this side, and taking a number of prisoners. Major General French advanced to Kelly's Ford, driving the enemy in small force across the river, and captured several hundred prisoners at the ford. [Signed]

GEO. G. MEADE, Maj. Gen. Com.

Second dispatch, 10 P. M.—General Sedgwick reports capturing this P. M., in his operations, three lieutenant colonels, among other officers, and over 800 men, together with four battle flags. General French captured over 400 prisoners, officers and men. [Signed]

GEORGE G MEADE,
Major General Commanding.

A dispatch from Washington of the 8th says: It appears from information received here to-night, that yesterday morning the 5th and 6th army corps, under command of Major General Sedgwick, advanced to Rappahannock Station, they having the right wing of the army, and the 1st, 2d and 3d corps forming the left wing under Major General French, proceeded to Kelly's Ford.

This morning he crossed the river with the remainder of his command, General Sedgwick had previously crossed it, and at nine o'clock this morning the two wings had formed a junction, and held both banks of the river. The enemy, after their defeat in these two engagements, were so hotly pursued by our victorious forces that they threw themselves into the river in their efforts to escape, where some were drowned and many were killed by our infantry. All the artillery the rebels had on this side was captured. It is reported to be seven guns. Their whole camp equipage undoubtedly fell into our hands, as they were compelled to leave it in their hasty retreat.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9.—The news from the front is to the effect that Gen. Kilpatrick occupied the city and heights of Fredericksburg yesterday, and was in position to hold them until the infantry could reach him. It is probable that the army has already joined him, and has now entrenched itself on the south side of the Rappahannock.

The train conveyed the wounded from the battle of Kelley's Ford yesterday, to the number of one hundred and fifty, who arrived here at 10 o'clock to-night. There were no ambulances to transport the wounded men to hospitals, and it may be several hours before they can receive surgical attention. The prisoners are expected to arrive during the night.

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—Special to the World, dated Washington, 8th say: Advices from your special correspondent to night in front, states that the advance of the entire army has progressed most satisfactorily to day. It has crossed the Rappahannock again, but found no enemy in any force sufficent to risk any general engagement. The present indications do not render a general engagement probable.

WARRENTON JUNCTION, Nov. 9—Noon.—Upon the lifting of the fog our forces commenced crossing and found little or no opposition. They are pressing forward towards Culpepper. The 2d Division 3d Corps, under Gen. Prince, passed the river last evening at Kelly's Ford, and captured 252 of the 2d and 38th North Carolina regiments. Gen. Prince's boys waded the ford, which was about waste deep, and the prisoners had to wade back.

By the same, at the residence of Mr. Jacob Nicely, Mr. J WITHEROOON, to Miss LIZZIE NICELY, all of Beaver Co., Pa.

DIED—On Monday evening, Nov. 2d, after a few days illnes, MILTON M'MINY, of Darlington tp., in the 30th year of his age.

He left a wife and one child to mourn his loss. God, in his kind providence, has seen fit to call from our midst one just in the prime of life, one that will be missed and deeply mourned by a large circle of friends; for he was a kind husband, an affectionate father, a good neighbor, loved and highly esteemed by all who knew him.

PITTSBURG WATER CURE

NO Curative Agency is superior to HYDROPATHY for the treatment of all form of Diseases, and no Institution in this country possesses greater facilities for its administration than this.

☞ For Pictorial Circular address

DR. W. H. HAMBLETON, Pittsburg, Pa.

NEW BRIGHTON RETREAT.

AN ASYLUM FOR THE RECEPTION, CURE AND TREATMENT OF MENTAL ALIENATION OR DISORDER.

And Other

Nervous and Chronic Diseases.

EXCLUSIVELY FOR FEMALES.

THIS institution is now open for the reception, care, and treatment of the independent class of patients who are laboring under mental derangement; or other nervous and chronic disease. We make special mention of nervous and chronic diseases, from the fact that seven tenths of the female patients that are committed to our public Asylums, to be treated for disordered minds, are reduced to that lamentable condition through previous physical disorder. By a well timed and judicious treatment of chronic and nervous diseased, all physical disorders, in the majority of cases may be removed; and thus the mind, having suffered through the medium of the body will when free from the exciting physical cause, throw off the shackles that has bound it to worse than midnight darkness, and reason will, once more, resume its sway, clothed in all its primitive beauty and wonted excellence. Hence the necessity of all those, who are laboring under the predisposing or exciting causes, calculated in the end to impair the mind to resort to an early and judicious course of remedial agents.

The Institution is a large brick building with a stone basement—four stories high and well ventilated. It is situated on an elevated table land which commands a view of entire town—adjacent hills—groves and neighboring streams; all of which are calculated to produce favorable impressions upon the disordered mind.

The Institution is complete in all of its appointments. Having been tastefully fitted up at great expense, in order that it may meet the approbation and views of the most fastidious.

The water closets and bathing apparatus have been gotten up upon the most approved modern scientific principles. This department embraces not only the ordinary baths, but, also, the medicated, warm air and ascending and descending douche for the more effectual and successful treatment of cutaneous and other scrofulous diseases.

We beg leave to say to all those who may be disposed to commit the interests of a dear wife, sister or daughter, to our charge—may be assured, that no means will be spared or efforts wanting on our part to ameliorate their condition or to effect a restoration to their accustomed health and vigor of mind.

For further particulars send for a circular. All communications should be addressed to:

DR. CHEESEMAN'S PILLS

THE combination of ingredients in these pills are the result of a long and extensive practice. Dr Cheeseman's Pills

Dr. Hurd's MOUTH WASH, TOOTH POWDER and TOOTHACHE DROPS cannot be sent by mail, but they can probably be obtained at your Drug or Periodical Stores. If they cannot, send to us for the DENTAL TREASURY, Price, ONE DOLLAR, which contains them.

NOW.

ARE DR. HURD'S PREPARATIONS GOOD

The best evidence that they are is, that their firmest friends and best patrons are those who have used them longest. Dr. Wm. B. Hurd is an eminent Dentist of Brooklyn, Treasurer of the New York State Dentists' Association, and these preparations have been used in his private practice for years, and a leading citizen of Brooklyn or Williamsburg questions their excellence, while eminent Dentists of New York recommend them as the best known to the profession. Without the aid of advertising, dealers have sold them by the gross.

The Editor of the Brooklyn Daily Times says: "We are happy to know that our friend, Dr. Hurd is succeeding beyond all expectations with his MOUTH WASH and TOOTH POWDER. The great secret of his success rests with the fact that his articles are precisely what they are represented to be, as we can testify from long use."

The well known P. T. Barnum writes: "I found your TOOTH POWDER so good that my family have used it all up. We find it the best powder for the teeth we have ever used. I shall feel obliged if you will send me another supply at the Museum at your convenience, with bill."

But their cost is so small that every one may test the matter for himself.

☞ Beware of the ordinary Tooth Powders. Dr. Hurd's Tooth Powder contains no acids, no alkali, nor charcoal, and polishes without wearing the enamel. Use no other.

WHAT WILL DR. HURD'S REMEDIES EFFECT?

Dr. Hurd's Mouth Wash and Tooth Powder will give young ladies that finest charm of women—a sweet breath and pearly teeth. Try them, ladies.

Dr. Hurd's Mouth Wash and Tooth Powder will cleanse the mouth from all foul exhalations, and if used in the morning, will make the breakfast taste sweeter and the day begin more pleasantly. Hundreds of persons can testify to this. Try them, gentlemen.

Dr. Hurd's Mouth Wash and Tooth Powder are the the best preparations in the world for curing bad breath and giving firmness and health to the gums. Hundreds of cases of Ulcerated Bleeding Gums, Sore Mouth, Canker, etc., have been cured by Dr. Hurd's astringent wash.

Dr. Hurd's Mouth Wash and Tooth Powder give an additional charm to courtship, and make husbands more agreeable to their wives and wives to their husbands. They should be used by every person having which are liable to impart a taint to the mouth

Dr. Hurd's Toothache Drops cure Toothache arising from exposed nerves, and are the best friends that parents can have in the house to save their children from torture and themselves from loss of sleep and sympathetic suffering.

Farmers and mechanics! you cannot well afford to neglect your teeth. For a trifling sume you can now get preservatives, than which Rothschild or Astor can get nothing better. Remember that Dyspepsia and Consumption of the Lungs often originate in neglect of Teeth. Send for the Treatise on Teeth, and read Dr. Fitch's observations on this subject. If too late to arrest decay in your own teeth, save your children's teeth.

NEURALGIA PLASTERS.—Dr. Hurd's Neuralgia Non-Adhesive Plasters are the most pleasant and successful remedies ever prescribed for this painful disease. The patient applies one, soon becomes drowsy, falls asleep, and awakes free from pain, and no blister or other unpleasant or injurious consequences ensue. For Earache and Nervous Headache, apply according to directions, and relief will surely follow. Nothing can be obtained equal to Dr. Hurd's Compress for Neuralgia. Try them. They are entirely a novel, curious and original preparation, and wonderfully successful. They are of two sizes, one small, for the face, price 15 cents, and the other large, for application to the body, price 37 cents. Will be mailed on receipt of price and one stamp.

WHAT ARE THE PEOPLE DOING?

The American people are intelligent enough to appreciate preparations that contribute so much to happiness of those using them; and they want them. Every mail brings us letters, some ordering the Treatise on Teeth, some the Neuralgia Plasters, and not a few enclosing 37 cts. for the Mouth Wash, to be sent by mail; but to these we are compelled to reply that it is impossible to send a half-pint bottle by mail. The people want these Remedies. Who will supply them?

Now is the CHANCE FOR AGENTS.

Shrewd agents can make a small fortune in carrying these articles around to families. The Dental Treasury is the neatest article that a man or woman can carry around. Send for one and see, or, better, a dozen, which we will sell, as samples, for $7. Agents supplied liberally with circulars. ☞ Now is the time to go into the business, to do good, and make a profit. We are spending thousands for the benefit of agents. New England men or women! here is something nice, and a chance to take the tide at its flood. Address,

WM. B. HURD & CO.,
Tribune Buildings, New York.

That remittances may be made with confidence, W. B. H. & Co., refer to the Mayor of Brooklyn; to G. W. Griffith, President Farmers and Citizens Bank, Brooklyn; to Joy, Coe, & Co., New York; to P. T. Barnum, Esq., New York, etc., etc.

In the Literary Department we shall present the choicest varieties within the reach of our extended means. The Novelettes, Tales, Poetry, &c., shall be supplied from the best and highest sources, and be equal to anything to be found in any journal or magazine.

Agriculture and Horticulture,

Farming, Gardening, Fruit-Raising, &c.

In all their branches, as conducted on the latest and most approved system.

Our labors in this department for over thirty years, have met the cordial approbation of the public. Our purpose has been to furnish useful and reliable information upon these very important branches of industry, and to protect them so far as within our power against the false doctrines and selfish purposes of the many empires and sensation-adventurers by which the Farmer is incessantly assailed. This portion of the Germantown Telegraph will alone be worth the whole price of subscription, as every Farmer and Gardener, who has a proper conception of his calling, will readily admit.

NEWS DEPARTMENT.

The same industry, care, and discrimination, in gathering and preparing the Stirring Events of the Day, expressly for this paper, which hitherto has been one of its marked features and given so universal satisfaction, will be continued with redoubled efforts to meet the increasing demands of the public. The labor required in this department is never fully appreciated by the reader. It would be impossible, at present, the condensed and careful made-up form in which it appears, a corrected mass of all the most interesting news of the week, without involving much physical labor, tact and judgment.

We annex the cash terms, to which we beg leave to call attention of all who think of subscribing for a newspaper:

NEW BRIGHTON RETREAT.

AN ASYLUM FOR THE RECEPTION, CURE AND TREATMENT OF MENTAL ALIENATION OR DISORDER.

And Other Nervous and Chronic Diseases.

EXCLUSIVELY FOR FEMALES.

THIS institution is now open for the reception, care, and treatment of the unfortunate class of patients who are laboring under mental derangement, or other nervous and chronic disease. We make special mention of nervous and chronic diseases, from the fact that seven tenths of the female patients that are committed to our public Asylums, to be treated for disordered minds, are reduced to that lamentable condition through previous physical disorder. By a well timed and judicious treatment of chronic and nervous diseases, all physical disorders, in the majority of cases may be removed; and thus the mind, having suffered through the medium of the body will when free from the exciting physical cause, throw off the shackles that has bound it to worse than midnight darkness, and reason will, once more, resume its sway, clothed, in all its primitive beauty and wonted excellence. Hence the necessity of all those, who are laboring under the predisposing or exciting causes, calculated in the end to impair the mind to resort to an early and judicious course of remedial agents.

The Institution is a large brick building, with a stone basement—four stories high and well ventilated. It is situated on an elevated table land which commands a view of entire town—adjacent hills—groves and neighboring streams; all of which are calculated to produce favorable impressions upon the disordered mind.

The Institution is complete in all of its appointments. Having been tastefully fitted up at great expense, in order that it may meet the approbation and views of the most fastidious.

The water closets and bathing apparatus have been gotten up upon the most approved modern scientific principles. This department embraces not only the ordinary baths but, also, the medicated, warm air and ascending and descending douche for the more effectual and successful treatment of cutaneous and other scrofulous diseases.

We beg leave to say to all those who may be disposed to commit the interests of a dear wife, sister or daughter, to our charge—may be assured that no means will be spared or efforts wanting on our part to ameliorate their condition or to effect a restoration to their accustomed health and vigor of mind.

For further particulars send for a circular. All communications should be addressed to,

THE SOLDIER'S TRUE FRIEND

ALWAYS READY.

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.

LONG marches, sore and stiff joints, blistered and inflamed feet, all these the soldier must endure, MOTHERS, REMEMBER THIS, when your sons are grasping their muskets to meet danger, think what relief a pot of this ALL HEALING & COOLING Salves will give to the one you love when far away from home and friends. It hardens and makes tough the feet so that they can endure great fatigue. It soothes and relieves the inflamed and stiff joints, leaving them supple, strong and vigorous, while fur it stands unequalled, removing and preventing every vestige of inflammation and gently drawing the edges together it quickly and completely heals the most frightful wounds.

WIVES AND SISTERS OF OUR VOLUNTEERS

Yo cannot put into the Knapsack of your Husbands and Brothers, a more valuable nor more necessary gift than a supply of this

EXTRAORDINARY MILITARY SALVE

The lonely sentry walking his rounds at night, exposed to drenching rains and chill night air, is often seized the most VIOLENT PAINS, COUGHS and SUFFOCATING HOARSNESS, first symptoms of QUICK CONSUMPTION, but if, supplied with HOLLOWAY'S PILLS and HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT, all danger is averted, a few Pills taken night and morning, and the ointment briskly rubbed twice a day over the throat and chest will remove the SEVEREST PAINS and stop the most distressing or DANGEROUS COUGH Therefore we say to the whole army,

SOLDIERS ATTENTION!!

See to your own health, do not trust to the Army supplies although most valuable. These PILLS and OINTMENT have been thoroughly tested, they are the only remedies used in the European Camps and Barracks, for over forty years Doctor Holloway has supplied all the armies in Europe, and during the CRIMEAN CAMPAIGN he established a depot at Balaclava, for the exclusive sale of these GREAT REMEDIES, many a time his special Agent there has sold over a ton in weight of the Ointment in a single day. These terrible and fatal enemies of the Soldier in Camp,

DIARRHEA, DYSENTERY, SCURVY, SORES and SCROFULOUS ERUPTIONS, all disappear like a charm before these PILLS AND OINTMENT, and now while the Cry rings throughout the land,

TO ARMS! TO ARMS!!

Do not let these brave men perish by disease, place in their hands these PRECIOUS REMEDIES, that will enable them to resist the dangerous exposures, the Fevers, the Chills, and the wounds which they cannot avoid, and what is more, cannot frequently get succor in the moment of need, whereas if our brave men have only to put their hands into their Knapsacks and find there a sure remedy for all the casualties of the battle field. How many thousands of lives would thus be saved who would otherwise perish before relief could be obtained.

CAUTION.—None are genuine unless the words "Holloway, New York and London," are discernable as a water-mark in every leaf of the book of directions around each pot or box: the same may be plainly seen by holding the leaf to the light. A handsome reward will be given to any one rendering such information as may lead to the detection of any party or parties counterfeiting the medicines or vending the same, knowing them to be spurious.

☞ Sold at the Manufactory of Professor HOLLOWAY, 80 Maiden Lane, New York, and by all respectable Druggists and Dealers in Medicines, throughout the civilized world, in boxes at 25 cents, 62 cents and $1 each.

☞ There is considerable saving by taking the larger sizes.

N. B.—Directions for the guidance of patients in every disorder are affixed to each box.

FRIENDS AND RELATIVES
OF THE
BRAVE SOLDIERS AND SAILORS,

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS And Ointment.

ALL WHO have Friends and Relatives in the Army or Navy, should take especial care that they be amply supplied with these Pills and Ointment; and where the brave Soldiers and Sailors have neglected to provide themselves with them, no better present can be sent them by their friends. They have been proved to be the Soldier's never-failing friend in the hour of need.

COUGHS AND COLDS AFFECTING TROOPS

Will be speedily removed and effectually cured by using these admirable medicines and by paying proper attention to the Directions which are attached to each Pot or Box.

SICK HEADACHES AND WANT OF APPETITE INCIDENTAL TO SOLDIERS.

These feelings which so sadden us, usually arise from trouble or annoyances, obstructed perspiration, or eating and drinking whatever is unwholesome, thus disturbing the healthful action of the liver and stomach. These organs must be relieved, if you desire to be well. The Pills, taking according to the printed instructions, will quickly produce a healthy action in both liver and stomach, and as a natural consequence a clear head and good appetite.

WEAKNESS OR DEBILITY INDUCED BY OVER FATIGUE,

Will soon disappear by the use of these invaluable Pills, and the Soldier will quickly acquire additional strength. Never let the bowels be either confined or unduly acted upon. It may seem strange that Holloway's Pills should be recommended for Dysentery and flux, many persons supposing that they would increase the relaxation. This is a great mistake, for these Pills will correct the liver and stomach and thus remove all the acrid humors from the system. This medicine will give tone and vigor to the whole organic system, however deranged, while health and strength follow as a matter of course. Nothing will stop the relaxation of the Bowels so sure as this famous medicine.

VOLUNTEERS ATTENTION! INDISCRETIONS OF YOUTH.

Sores and Ulcers, Blotchings and Swellings, can with certainty be radically cured if the Pills are taken night and morning, and the ointment be freely used as stated in the printed instructions. If treated in any other manner they dry up in one part to break out in another. Whereas this Ointment will remove the humors from the system and leave the Patient a vigorous and healthy man. It will require a little perseverance in bad cases to insure a lasting cure.

FOR WOUNDS EITHER OCCASIONED BY THE BAYONET, OR SABRE OR THE BULLET, SORES OR BRUISES.

To which every Soldier and Sailor are liable there are no medicines so safe, sure and convenient as Holloway's Pills and ointment. The poor wounded and almost dying sufferer might have his wounds dressed immediately, if he would only provide himself with this Matchless Ointment, which should be thrust into the wound and smeared all around it, then covered with a piece of linen from his knapsack, and compressed with a handkerchief. Taking night and morning 6 or 8 Pills to purify the blood and prevent inflammation.

Every Soldier's knapsack or every sailor's chest should be provided with a box of these invaluable remedies.

MARRIAGE.

IS loves and hates, sorrows and joys; Hopes and fears, regrets and joys; As GUIDE, how lost, how restored; the nature, treatment and radical cure of sperm atorrhœa or seminal weakness; involuntary emissions, sexual debility and impediments to marriage generally; nervousness, consumption, decay, mental and physical incapacity, resulting from SELF-ABUSE—are fully explained in the MARRIAGE GUIDE, by WM. YOUNG, M. D. This most extraordinary book should be in the hands of every young person contemplating marriage, and every man or woman who desires to limit the number of their offspring to their circumstances. Every pain, disease and error incidental to youth, maturity and old age, is fully explained; every particle of knowledge that should be known is here given. It is full of engravings. In
